

BART ADVERTISING CONTENT GUIDELINES

OBJECTIVE

Through these guidelines, the San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District (“BART”), in keeping with its primary function as a provider of public transportation, does not intend to convert its property into an open public forum for public discourse, debate, or expressive activity. In furtherance of the discrete and limited objectives described below, BART shall retain control over the nature of advertisements accepted for posting in the BART system and maintain its advertising space as a nonpublic forum with limited content neutral subject matter restrictions. In setting its advertising standards, BART seeks to meet the following goals and objectives:

- (a) Maintain a secure and orderly operating environment;
- (b) Maintain a safe and welcoming environment for all BART passengers, including minors who use the BART system, without regard to race, color, marital status, sexual orientation, religion, national origin, ancestry, age, sex, gender identity, disability, medical condition, or veterans’ status, and avoid claims of discrimination from the public;
- (c) Maintain and increase ridership and fare revenue;
- (d) Avoiding unintentional appearance of favoritism, association with, or bias towards any group, movement, or viewpoint;
- (e) Preserve the marketing potential of the advertising space by avoiding content that the community could view as inappropriate or harmful to the public;
- (f) Increase advertising revenue to help support BART service to the public;
- (g) Avoid imposing demeaning or disparaging messages on a captive audience; and
- (h) Reduce the diversion of resources from BART objectives caused by controversy surrounding advertisements.

BART retains the unqualified right to display, on or in its facilities, advertisements and notices that pertain to BART operations and promotions, consistent with the provisions of its agreement with the Advertising Contractors. Promotional materials may include, but not be limited to, internal marketing collateral, BART branding campaigns, and co-promotional campaigns with third parties. Consistent with the status of the BART premises to which this policy pertains as a nonpublic forum, BART does not accept free public service announcements. These Guidelines shall be effective upon adoption and shall be enforced to the degree that it does not impair the obligations of any executed contract. BART reserves the right, from time to time, to suspend, modify, or revoke the application of any or all of these Guidelines as it deems necessary to comply with legal mandates, facilitate its primary transportation function, to ensure the safety or security of BART customers and BART facilities, or to fulfill the goals and objectives referred to herein. All provisions of these Guidelines shall be deemed severable.

For purposes of understanding the meaning of advertisements, BART may refer to information beyond the advertisement including, but not limited to, dictionaries, reviews by authoritative bodies, current events or public information regarding the advertiser. BART shall assess whether an independent, reasonably prudent person, knowledgeable of BART’s customer profile and using prevailing community standards, would believe that the advertisement complies with the provisions of these Guidelines. In the case of advertisements that use double entendre or multiple interpretations, all meanings of the advertisement must comply with these Guidelines. BART reserves the right, in all circumstances, to require that an advertisement in the BART system include a disclaimer indicating that such advertising is paid for by the advertiser, stating that "The views expressed in this advertisement do not reflect the views of BART," or a similar statement, and BART may set minimum size standards for the disclaimer to ensure legibility.
