Reckoning & Resilience in the Post-George Floyd Era
Minneapolis, Minnesota
Marriott City Center
October 26 - 30, 2025

Join the National Association for Civilian Oversight of Law Enforcement (NACOLE) as we convene our 31st annual conference, bringing together hundreds of oversight professionals, community advocates, law enforcement leaders, policymakers, and scholars from across the country and around the world. This year's theme, Reckoning and Resilience in the Post-George Floyd Era, reflects the urgent need to confront the realities of systemic injustice while building sustainable, community-centered oversight practices.

Through dynamic panels, skill-building workshops, and thought-provoking discussions, the conference will explore cutting-edge issues in police and correctional oversight, with a focus on transparency, accountability, equity, and public trust.

As the leading organization dedicated to advancing civilian oversight, NACOLE continues its mission to strengthen democratic systems by promoting independent oversight that is effective, legitimate, and rooted in community values. Join us as we honor the progress made, confront the challenges ahead, and chart a resilient path forward in pursuit of justice and lasting change.

Schedule

HOTEL

NACOLE has arranged for a block of rooms at a special rate of $229.00 per night for those attending the NACOLE Conference at the Minneapolis Marriott City Center Hotel. This hotel will serve as our host hotel and is the location of all of our daily sessions. Reservations may be made by clicking the icon above. In order to receive this special rate, please make your reservations on or before

October 6, 2025. The hotel requires that all reservations be accompanied by a first night room deposit or guaranteed with a major credit card. Please note that NACOLE has reserved a limited number of rooms at this rate. Although we will make every effort to assist, NACOLE cannot guarantee the group rate after the room block has sold out or after the special rate cut-off date of October 6, 2025, whichever comes first.

Room rates in Minneapolis are currently subject to applicable taxes of 15.03%. Please note that this information is provided as a tool to help you estimate possible expenditures and is not meant as a guarantee of actual expense.

VISITING MINNEAPOLIS

Minneapolis is a vibrant and diverse city known for its blend of urban energy and natural beauty. Visitors can explore the renowned Minneapolis Institute of Art and the Walker Art Center, both offering world-class exhibits and cultural experiences. The city boasts a thriving music and theater scene, with venues like First Avenue and the Guthrie Theater drawing national attention. Outdoor lovers will enjoy the Chain of Lakes, miles of biking trails, and scenic parks right in the heart of the city. Minneapolis also features a dynamic food scene, offering everything from international cuisine to locally sourced farm-to-table dining. Sports fans can catch a game at U.S. Bank Stadium, home to the Vikings. The city's mix of modern architecture and historic neighborhoods creates a unique atmosphere worth exploring. With its friendly Midwestern charm and rich cultural offerings, Minneapolis makes for a memorable and well-rounded travel destination.

TRAVELING, TRANSPORTATION & PARKING

If you're traveling to Minneapolis for an event, the most convenient airport to fly into is Minneapolis–St. Paul International Airport (MSP), which serves both domestic and international flights. From the airport, there are several transportation options to reach the Minneapolis Marriott City Center hotel downtown. One of the most affordable and efficient options is the Metro Transit Blue Line light rail, which runs every 10–15 minutes and gets you downtown in about 25–30 minutes for just $2–$2.50. Buses, such as Metro Transit Route 54, also serve the airport but are slower due to multiple stops. For a more direct ride, taxis are readily available at both terminals and typically cost $38–$50, while ride-sharing services like Uber and Lyft offer fares in the $25–$45 range, depending on time and demand.

If you prefer a scheduled ride, airport shuttles such as SuperShuttle provide shared transportation directly to the hotel, with one-way fares starting around $16. Once you arrive at the Marriott City Center, the hotel offers on-site self-parking for approximately $32–$43 per day with in-and-out privileges. Valet parking is also available at a higher rate, typically between $52 and $55 per day.
