

Certificate of Appreciation
The BART Police Civilian Review Board
Commends William White, District 3 Representative

In recognition of 15 years of extraordinary leadership and service as a founding member of the BART Police Civilian Review Board (BPCRB).

Throughout his exemplary tenure, Mr. White played a vital role in establishing an independent, effective, accountable, and transparent system of civilian oversight. His unwavering commitment ensured that all practices promoted fairness and equity. He consistently amplified the voices of community members and stakeholders, always prioritizing their inclusion in the BPCRB's work.

Mr. White remained acutely aware of the impact of policing, particularly on communities of color. His efforts consistently centered the experiences and concerns of Black, Brown, Indigenous, and Underrepresented People.

He worked tirelessly to improve key policies, including those on Body-Worn Cameras, Bias-Based Profiling, and the Treatment of Transgender Individuals. As a dedicated member of the Use of Force Subcommittee, he helped implement one of the nation's first minimal Use of Force Standards.

Mr. White also diligently participated in closed-session reviews of investigative and disciplinary cases, ruling on findings and recommending discipline with fairness and impartiality.

The BPCRB gratefully acknowledges his significant contributions to the oversight of law enforcement, his steadfast advocacy for the Board's continued relevance and effectiveness, and his outstanding dedication to public service.

The BART Police Civilian Review Board proudly presents this Certificate of Appreciation to William White, District 3 Representative, for his exceptional contributions to the field.
